

CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT

I/We acknowledge and agree that admission of the student to Fahan School will be on the following terms and conditions:

1. A full Term's notice, in writing, is required to be given by the parent before a student leaves the School or Boarding House and in default of such notice a Term's fees are payable. Fees are subject to alteration by the School Board from time to time and, where possible, notice of any such alteration will be given in advance. However, the Board reserves the right to make variations without notice.
2. While overseas students are students at Fahan School they will reside as boarders in the Fahan School boarding homes. The Principal of the School undertakes to be the guardian of all overseas students under the age of eighteen years while they are attending Fahan School.
3. When two or more people are liable for payment of fees, that liability is joint and several.
4. Notwithstanding that the School may, at our request, direct accounts to third parties or to only one of us, we agree to retain our liability to pay such accounts.
5. Students for whom fees or other charges remain unpaid at the end of the Term may not return to School the following Term.
6. No remission of fees is allowable in the event of absences from School. If a student is absent for part of or more than one Term then a retaining fee of half one Term's current tuition fees will be charged.
7. As part of the consolidated charge, the School insures each student against personal accidents.
8. The School is hereby authorised in the event of the student suffering an injury or sickness to take the necessary action to obtain medical and/or hospital care and attention.
9. The parent(s)/ guardian(s) (on behalf of the student) undertake to comply with School rules concerning attendance, behaviour, dress and boarding. The School reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, to suspend or dismiss a student for disciplinary purposes without refund of fees.
